By The Associated Press
Bands of Negroes battled policemen with rocks and sticks in Savannah, Ga., early today following a singing, shouting march by nearly 2,000 Negroes who were scattered by tear gas bombs.

Fifty state troopers moved into the Georgia port city in the wake of a two-hour riot that left nine persons injured, including three policemen.

Whatever steps may be necessary to curb violence were pledged in Atlanta by Gov. Carl E. Sanders who planned to confer with Savannah officials.

Police said demonstrators lay down on the street, blocking traffic at several intersections after the midnight march from a

Otisville Bank Loot Recovered

FLINT (AP)—Authorities have recovered the remaining $12,000 in loot taken in Tuesday's $21,400 robbery of a branch bank in nearby Otisville.

The money was found in a heavily wooded area, infested with mosquitoes and a few rattlesnakes, in a county park in nearby Richfield Township.

The recovery of the missing loot by FBI agent Fred Wickland ended an hours-long search that began Wednesday morning and involved 20 FBI agents, assisted by Genesee County sheriff's detectives.

They had gone to the park after being told by Donald L. Uptegraft, 23, that he stashed his share of the bank loot there before his arrest for the robbery of the Otisville branch of the Citizens Commercial & Savings Bank of Flint.

Some $9,400 of the money taken in the holdup was recovered Tuesday night in the apartment of Robert Warner, 20-year-old Flint bakery worker, police said.

Both men were arraigned in U. S. District Court at Bay City Wednesday. They were bound over for examination July 24 on federal bank robbery charges.

Judge Stephen J. Roth ordered them returned to jail at Bay City when they failed to make bond of $15,000 each.

Uptegraft's wife, Marjorie, 18, was released on $1,000 personal bond pending examination July 24 on a charge of aiding and abetting.

Police said Mrs. Uptegraft turned herself in to sheriff's officers about an hour after the holdup and implicated both her and Warner.

Her statement to police led to their arrests.

Red Agents Sent Out From Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., says he's not at all surprised by a State Department report that 15 to 20 potential subversive agents have flown recently from Cuba to other Caribbean lands.

"It's been going on for some time," Tower said today in an interview. "I have consistently said that Cuba is a staging area, a training ground for saboteurs, guerrillas and propagandists."

Another critic of U.S. policy toward the Cuban regime of Fidel Castro, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, said the report was "further evidence of the step-up in the export of terrorism from Cuba to other Latin-American countries."

The New York Republican expressed his view Wednesday night in an interview in Rochester, N.Y.

Some newspapers as well as congressional critics have been charging that Cuba was exporting subversion.

Richard I. Phillips, State Department press officer, said Wednesday that the 15 to 20 persons — presumably Cuban — left Cuba by way of Grand Cayman Island — a British island off Cuba.

He said this has been drawn to the attention of the British. A foreign office spokesman said in London Wednesday night that the matter is being carefully considered by responsible British officials.

Phillips' statement came after Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., quoted a Miami news reporter as saying that Soviet-made planes had discharged passengers on Grand Cayman Island.

Phillips said the planes that landed on the island were three Soviet-made Ilyushin airliners. He said the 15 to 20 "potential subversive agents" transferred to non-Cuban commercial flights for other points in the Caribbean area including San Jose, Costa Rica.

Kelly Requests Court To Dismiss Districting Suit

DETROIT (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley asked U.S. District Court in Detroit today to dismiss a suit challenging the legislative apportionment provisions of the new Michigan Constitution.

"It is my view that this suit is premature and should be dismissed by the court," Kelley said, explaining that the new document does not go into effect until Jan. 1, 1964.

Kelley made his dismissal request in reply to a suit filed by five labor leaders last month.

The original complaint was filed by Michigan AFL-CIO President August Scholle, AFL-CIO Vice President William Marshall, and three other officials.

It contended the new constitution's provisions are illegal under the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, providing for equal protection under the law.

In asking for dismissal, Kelley said his request does not alter his earlier opinion that the apportionment provision actually does violate the U.S. Constitution.

"Should that issue be raised at the proper time and in the proper form, or should the court disagree with our motion and determine the present suit is not premature, I shall adhere to my previously stated course of action."

Kelley announced last April he would appoint two teams from his staff to take both sides of the argument in any legal challenge of the new constitution's apportionment section, even though he personally would agree with any such challenge.

Today's dismissal request was based on grounds that since the new document doesn't take effect until next year "none of the alleged violations of rights complained of by plaintiffs can possibly occur until the time of the implementation of the apportionment provisions... is accomplished."

Officer Faces Court Martial

CAMP GRAYLING (AP)—Second Lt. Frederick C. Ballard, 28, of Kalamazoo, today faced a special court martial for being absent from field training with the Michigan National Guard here.

The trial is the first of its type in Michigan Guard history.

Ballard, assigned to the Marshall, Mich., ordnance unit, failed to report for duty last Saturday when the Guard opened its annual two-week encampment.

Ballard, now training with his unit, will be tried by a board of officers headed by Col. Gerald P. Sullivan of St. Clair Shores. Ballard faces a possible fine of $100 and 100 days in jail.

State Guard spokesmen said Ballard reported for duty Monday and started his field training Wednesday.

Injunction Fails To Halt Picketing At Superior Docks

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP) — Circuit Court Judge Allen Kinney issued an injunction Wednesday against picketing of an upper lakes shipping vessel, the Douglas Houghton, but picketing continued at the waterfront.

As soon as deputies and police served a copy of the injunction notice on each picket, he was replaced by another. Four pickets kept marching at a time.

A hearing on the injunction was set for Circuit Court Friday.

The pickets are members of the Seafarer International Union, AFL-CIO, which has demonstrated against ships of the Toronto firm at other Great Lakes ports.

Pickets carried banners saying the company is "depriving American seamen of Great Lakes jobs."

Rackets Figure Is Questioned In Cleveland Killing

CLEVELAND (AP)—Alex Birns, Cleveland rackets figure sought for questioning in the gangland-style killing of investment promoter Mervin L. Gold, surrendered to authorities today.

John Kocovar, executive officer in the Cuyahoga County Sheriff's Department, said the 38-year-old racketeer met him and Sheriff James J. McGettrick in Garfield Heights, on Cleveland's east side, and that Birns was taken to the sheriff's office for questioning.

Police said they have a number of questions to ask Birns about the slaying of Gold, who had linked Birns to his twisted financial dealings.

Pentagon Trims Costs By Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today his cost reduction program clipped $1 billion from Pentagon spending during the fiscal year just ended.

This, McNamara told President Kennedy in a memorandum, was $250 million more than he estimated could be saved a year ago.

And he also reported that plans for the current and following fiscal years would bring total savings to almost $4 billion within five years instead of the originally estimated $3 billion.

The savings have been in logistic—supply—costs and "have not in any way been achieved at a sacrifice of national security," McNamara wrote.

Two Integration Edicts Issued In South Carolina

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Separate orders ending segregation at the University of South Carolina and in public parks operated by the state of South Carolina were issued Wednesday by U.S. Dist. Judge J. Robert Martin of Greenville.

Martin ordered the all-white university to admit Negro coed Henri Monteith of Columbia earlier at the beginning of the next semester.

In an accompanying order, Martin ordered the state to admit Negroes to all of its 26 state-operated parks by mid-September.

State officials were undecided about appealing the rulings. State Atty. Gen. Daniel R. McLeod said he would have to read Judge Martin's entire ruling before making a decision on an appeal.

Judge Martin's rulings in Miss parks for 60 days, the judge said: "In delaying integration of the 'the court cannot ignore the fact that long standing customs are not changed without planning, education, leadership, and foresight.'"

Lincoln Jenkins, Columbia lawyer for the Negro plaintiffs in the suit, said he was generally satisfied with the ruling but would have preferred that the order had called for immediate integration of the parks.

The state now operates 26 state parks, including 19 for white use and seven for use of Negroes.

Railroad Walkout Held Up; Rules Frozen Until July 29

British Queen Boored For First Time In History

LONDON (AP) — British officials were stunned today that Queen Elizabeth II was boored by demonstrators protesting the state visit of King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece.

Communist, anarchist and ban-the-bomb demonstrators shouted invective at the royal party as it entered the left a gala theatrical performance Wednesday night.

Elizabeth, visibly shaken, drove off alone and unsmiling to Buckingham Palace instead of attending a government reception with the royal visitors and her husband, Prince Philip.

The demonstration was organized by the "Committee of 100 Against Tyranny" to demand freedom for what they call Greek political prisoners. The Greek government calls them murderers and traitors convicted of crimes in the civil war that broke out at the end of World War II.

King Gets Appeal
Premier Panayotis Pipinelis of Greece saw one of the chief instigators of the demonstrations, Mrs. Betty Ambatielos, today. He promised to give King Paul her appeal for release of her husband, Tony, from prison.

Mrs. Ambatielos said she would take no further part in the demonstrations.

Mrs. Ambatielos, 45, is a British Communist, a school teacher, and wife of a Greek Communist who has spent 18 years in prison.

"At this moment, plans stand to continue with demonstrations here tonight," said a spokesman for the Committee of 100 after learning of Mrs. Ambatielos' decision.

As Queen Elizabeth arrived at the theater with King Paul, the demonstrators shouted "siege hell" and "fascist swine" at the Greek monarch. She left the theater alone, however, and this time the boos were directed at her.

Five rows of police held back the screaming demonstrators. They arrested nine of them, including David Hollman, 29, an American who works here as a computer programmer. Hollman was charged with possessing an offensive weapon—a roll of paper containing a dart.

Several minutes before Queen Elizabeth left the theater, booring greeted the departing Greek couple. It reached a peak as Prince Philip joined them in a glass-roofed limousine and snapped on the interior light.

The same treatment was given Queen Mother Elizabeth and newly married Princess Alexandra and her husband, Angus Ogilvy, as they entered their cars.

There was some scattered cheering with each outburst, however.

Moscow-Peking Negotiators Fail To Appear Today

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet and Chinese negotiators failed to appear today at the hilltop villa where they have been debating their ideological differences.

Normally the two delegations arrive in black limousines shortly before 10 a.m. but today there was no sign of them and no immediate explanation of their failure to appear.

Western observers speculated that the talks, which have been in progress at the villa much of the time since the Chinese arrived last Friday, may have been recessed again.

There was a recess on Tuesday, reportedly because the Chinese were awaiting instructions from Peking following an attack on the Chinese by the Soviet Communist party's central committee. Some Russians appeared at the villa Tuesday, but the Chinese did not. Today, neither the Russians nor the Chinese came.

Midland Police Catch Escaper

MIDLAND (AP) — An Alabama prison escapee was arrested at a Western Union office in Midland Wednesday, about an hour after Midland police were alerted he would attempt to pick up a money order.

Held in the county jail here is George Raymond Phillips, about 50. Police said he escaped May 7 from Kilby Prison in Montgomery, Ala., where he was serving a 30-year term for assault with intent to rob.

Two persons apprehended with Phillips also were jailed for investigation. They were identified as Raleigh Hamilton and Winifred Kelly.

Midland City Police said they received a call from officials of the Alabama prison about 3 p.m., advising them Phillips, using the alias of Charles Kelly, would attempt to pick up some money at the local Western Union office.

About an hour later Phillips appeared to claim the money and he was taken into custody. Officers said Phillips indicated he would fight extradition. They said a warrant for Phillips was being sent here by Alabama authorities.

Solons Intervene In Scholle Suit On Apportionment

DETROIT (AP) — Three Republican State Senators filed notice in U.S. District Court here Wednesday that they will intervene in Michigan AFL-CIO President August Scholle's suit aimed at blocking legislative apportionment under the formula prescribed in the new state Constitution.

Sens. Frank D. Beadle of St. Clair, Paul C. Younger of Lansing and John W. Fitzgerald of Grand Ledge opposed Scholle earlier when he challenged the makeup of the state Senate in a suit filed in the Michigan Supreme Court.

Scholle won the suit, but the Michigan high court's decision was blocked from taking effect by a U.S. Supreme Court order obtained by Beadle, Younger and Fitzgerald.

The new constitution's approval by the voters last spring made Scholle's first suit a moot question.

The union chief's latest court action seeks to prevent apportionment because, Scholle charges, the formula in the new constitution is discriminatory.

Secretary of State James M. Hare is named as defendant in Scholle's suit because of his status as chief elections officer for the state.

Tank Blows Up At Keego Harbor; Workers Injured

PONTIAC (AP) — A gasoline storage tank blew up at Keego Harbor, west of Pontiac, today. First reports said two men were taken to Pontiac General Hospital.

The tanks were being removed to make room for widening of Orchard Lake Road.

Industry Asks Cut In Michigan Cigarette Tax

LANSING (AP) — Spokesmen for the Michigan tobacco industry have been told their plea for lower cigarette taxes "will be given every consideration."

Reduction of the cigarette tax is one of the many alternate tax reform proposals in the series of possibilities proposed by Gov. George Romney.

Michael Spaniolio, executive secretary of the Michigan Tobacco and Candy Distributors and Vendors Association, met with Richard Van Dusen, legal aid and tax advisor to the governor to ask for a reduction in the cigarette tax.

The industry spokesman asked that the state cigarette tax be reduced from the present seven cents to the former five cents.

New Machinery Set Up To Study 4-Year Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — With a nationwide railroad strike temporarily averted, new machinery devised by President Kennedy for another attempt at settling the four-year-old jobs dispute gets a tune-up today.

This date was to mark the beginning of a nationwide rail walkout, but a dramatic announcement by Kennedy less than eight hours before the 12:01 a.m. strike deadline set a new timetable.

In a brief report from the White House the President late Wednesday announced the appointment of a special six-man subcommittee of the Labor-Management Advisory Committee to make a new study of the dispute and to report its findings by July 22.

At the same time he announced agreement by the railroads and five operating unions to freeze any work rules changes or strike notice until July 29.

Wirtz Calls Meeting
Kennedy said that on July 22 he will send his own recommendations and the special committee's report to Congress. This would mean Congress would have just one week to come up with legislation to prevent a strike if an agreement is not reached.

Meanwhile, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, named chairman of the new special committee by Kennedy, set up a morning meeting today with representatives of the rail carriers and unions.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, vice chairman of the committee, also will be on hand.

The meeting was called as a planning and organization session and follows fast on the continuous round of labor-management-government meetings here since June 17.

Kennedy's four other appointees, all of whom gave their consent to the White House Wednesday to serve, were not expected to be present at this inaugural session.

Union Heads Attend

They are Joseph Block, board chairman of Inland Steel, Chicago; George Harrison, AFL-CIO vice president and long-time president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks; AFL-CIO President George Meany, and Stuart T. Saunders, president of the Norfolk & Western Railway, who is moving up Oct. 1 to be board chairman and chief executive officers of the nation's biggest rail line, the Pennsylvania.

A spokesman for the rail unions said that two of the five top rail union officers definitely would be present. They are Charles Luna, president of the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and Louis J. Wagner, president of the independent Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen.

The heads of the three other rail unions left Washington late Wednesday. They are to be represented by top aides at today's meeting.

Kennedy's appointment of the special study committee, the climax of a day of intense activity in the White House, was his second surprise announcement in the rail dispute in two days.

No More Bargaining?
On Tuesday the President had recommended arbitration of the work rules dispute by Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, a former labor lawyer and Kennedy's former secretary of labor.

Union rejection of the proposal—the carriers accepted—touched off Wednesday's activity in the executive mansion.

Declaring they had no objections to Goldberg—the unions told the President at 10 a.m. they couldn't go for the principle of binding arbitration.

Kennedy did not indicate what kind of legislation he might ask as a result of the proposed study—if no agreement is reached. A Capitol Hill source said, however, the President would propose an amendment to the Railway Labor Act providing for compulsory arbitration.

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, said it is the carriers' understanding that the dispute will be settled one way or the other by July 29. He said he did not think further collective bargaining is contemplated.

Rail Seizure Opposed
Luna and Wagner held a news conference in which they said they

Projects To Make M-35 Wider, Safer

Scores of workmen and machines are busy with the improvement of more than seven miles of trunkline highway from Escanaba south under two contracts at a total cost of more than $700,000.

The State Highway Department reports that there is 50 per cent federal funds participation on both jobs and that the paving is scheduled to be completed not later than Sept. 30.

The Fox Valley Construction Co., of Appleton is contractor for the construction of 2.919 miles of four-lane development on M. 35

(S. 23rd St.) from Ludington St. south to near the city limits. Cost of the work is $485,979.

The project includes easing of a curve at Sylvan Point, scene of many traffic mishaps in the past, the construction of grading and drainage structures, and the paving to provide four traffic lanes. The surfacing is to be concrete and bituminous concrete.

Traffic is now being detoured through Escanaba via Lake Shore Drive, 10th St., and 3rd Ave. N. State Highway representatives said the detour will continue in effect until the paving is completed.

The second project is the surfacing with bituminous concrete of 4.391 miles of M. 35 from the Escanaba City limits south through Breezy Point and Ford River to connect with new paving south of the Ford River bridge.

Caspian Construction Co., of Caspian, Mich., is the contractor and the project cost is $261,666. The improvement will give M. 35 a smooth bituminous concrete surface over old and bumpy concrete and will widen the roadway to 24 feet.

Grand Marais To Sponsor Marker

The Michigan Historical Commission has approved final draft of the text for the Grand Marais Historical Marker, to be erected this summer at Bay Shore Park. Grand Marais has been designated by the Commission as an official registered site of statewide historical significance.

The text of the marker follows: "Grand Marais received its name from French explorers, missionaries, and traders who passed here in the 1600s. In the 1800s Lewis Cass, Henry Schoolcraft, and Douglass Houghton also found the sheltered harbor a welcome stopping place. Grand Marais' permanent settlement dates from the 1860s with the establishment of fishing and lumbering.

"At the turn of the century Grand Marais was a boom town served by a railroad from the south. Its mills turned out many millions of board feet annually. Lumbering declined around 1910, and Grand Marais became almost a ghost town, but the fishing industry continued. Many shipping disasters have occurred at or near this harbor of refuge which has been served by the Coast Guard since 1899. In 1942 the first radar station in Michigan was built in Grand Marais. Fishing, lumbering, and tourism now give Grand Marais its livelihood."

The marker will be of cast bronze mounted between two metal posts, and in addition to the text, it will bear the seal of the Michigan Historical Commission. The Grand Marais Chamber of Commerce is financing the marker, which is being cast at a cost of $250. Anyone wishing to co-sponsor the project may make donations to Mrs. Vito Mixon, secretary. The names of all donors will be published upon completion of the marker project.

TRaverse City (AP)—More than 200,000 persons are expected today for the opening of the 38th annual National Cherry Festival.

Sunny skies and moderate temperatures were forecast for the festival's two-day program of parades, concerts, water events on Grand Traverse Bay, Indian dances, street acts and contests.

The festival is an annual event aimed at publicizing Traverse City as the national cherry capital. The cherries will be seen everywhere — in floats, decorations, given and sold as street favors and in cherry pie, the official dessert in all public dining places for the two days of the festival.

National Cherry Queen Mary Kardes and her court of six princesses will signal the opening of festivities today when they arrive at the Traverse City waterfront aboard the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw.

Drought Causes Forest Hazards, Cuts Hay Crop

The forest fire danger in the Upper Peninsula is mounting with deficient summer rainfall and foresters are worried about high fire hazard in a dry fall.

The drought has affected the hay crop on the Garden Peninsula and continued lack of rain will affect the county's corn and potato crops, says Joseph L. Heirman, Extension director.

Forest Service said the burning index in the St. Ignace and Sault Ste. Marie ranger districts of the Hiawatha National Forest was 57 today "and anytime its over 50 we are in a period of very high fire hazard."

The Forest Service was augmenting tower looking with aerial surveys in the Upper Peninsula today because of the peril. The Escanaba area got rain in the weekend, but as little as 0.02 inch fell in some parts of the Hiawatha forest. "We're quite concerned about it," said Marshall.

College Is Growing

Bay de Noc Community College is growing and it hasn't opened its doors yet. Enrollments for its first year have reached 85 for day classes and it's now certain, says President Richard Rinehart, that enrollment will reach the 100 student mark which was the first goal of the college planners. Night class enrollments will substantially increase this number.

The gymnasium and auditorium sections of the former Escanaba Senior High School, which is the first home of the new college, will not be used by it, nor will the second or third floors of the building. The center of the building will be sealed off by the college, which is modernizing the rooms which it will use for its program.

Escanaba Senior High School students who went to school in the old building will see great change if they return as college students, and there'll be some landscaping and lighting of the grounds. But the change in the educational outlook of the community will be even greater than the change on the new college campus.

For the first time the Delta Area has a college of its own, a community college offering two years of college courses and terminal, or complete, shorter courses to teach job skills and other needs of the community. The new college is both an opportunity for great broadening of higher education in the community, and of doing it economically.

The Press is interested and impressed to note the many communications it receives from readers denoting increasing community interest in the college. Many of them cite the national growth of the community college movement and predictions that it will become the broad base of America's higher education and vocational training system. Others cite the savings which it provides. A recent one reiterated that a home area college means a scholarship of $1,000 to every student who attends it because he can live at home.

Community colleges have a strong impact on the areas they serve because they're of, by and for the community. It has become custom for communities to support them in many ways, some modest, some substantial and this process already is at work for Delta's new Bay de Noc Community College, which has been offered scholarships by several organizations.

The Escanaba High School Class of 1933 in 30th annual reunion at the Dells Supper Club July 3 collected a substantial amount of money which will be offered to the college for a scholarship. This is a most friendly and helpful action and it is to be hoped that it becomes a precedent for other class reunions. Their members could find no better expression of gratitude to their high school for the help it gave them in preparing for adult life than to help the new college in their old high school building to broaden its offerings to the community and its people, young and old.

Encouraging Doubts

"Sir, you have knocked down many things we believed in, but have not put anything in their place."

This was an earnest student's lament to a teacher who was busy trying to instill in all his pupils a healthy skepticism as they plunged into the varied fields of knowledge.

In the view of Bergen Evans, a Northwestern University professor, the job that teacher was doing is vital. Writing in Cosmopolitan magazine, he says of the American youngster in school:

"The boy must be encouraged to doubt, to question, to demand the credentials of every blustering assertion that claims to be incontrovertible."

"It seems almost cruel. The innocent trust of youth is so attractive that it seems wrong to undermine it. But the questioning spirit . . . will be the boy's first line of defense as he passes into manhood."

"The predators of the modern world work through thought control — through slogans, clichés, dogmas and isms, all clamoring for the boy's allegiance and blind acceptance."

What is at stake in the proper schooling of our young should be obvious to us all. In two years there will be more than 20 million pre-teen and teen-age boys in U. S. schools. How their minds are shaped will clearly affect the course of national and world history.

Professor Evans calls for careful balance to assure fair treatment for students through the whole spectrum of talent.

Like many others, he urges patience and eternal vigilance to the end that creative individuals be identified and encouraged rather than suppressed by the routine rigidities of the large class.

At the same time he would not have the great mass of average students downgraded by teachers or any others:

"No good is accomplished if, by disparaging contrast with the fortunate few, the many are led to feel inferior."

Evans is equally solicitous that reasonable attitudes be shown toward those who learn slowly or exhibit limited powers. Says he:

"They, too, are human beings. They, too, will be men with a place in society . . . They are hopeless in the face of eternal blame and open or implied contempt."

BARBS

Statistics say the average American takes over 18,000 steps a day. How many know where they're going?

We don't see much bus chivalry these days. It's become a standing joke.

It's chigger and mosquito time, making it hard to keep out of the red on the beaches.

On an awful lot of one-party lines the one party is usually a teen-age daughter.

It serves a woman right if, for a bridge prize, she gets the incense burner she gave as a prize previously.

Teen-agers who are dancing around wild won't be so wild about dancing when they grow up.

Washington Comment

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's chief political aide, George Hinman, holds forth in the pastel-tinted, thick-carpeted offices of the Rockefeller brothers in New York's RCA building.

The other day William Prendergast, research director of the Republican National Committee, came to call on Hinman but forgot which floor he was on. He asked the lobby information man:

"Can you tell me where I might find George Hinman?"

The information clerk quickly thumbed through his list but he couldn't find the name. Puzzled, he asked Prendergast:

"What is he, the plumber?"

When Prendergast laughed and mentioned the magic name "Rockefeller," the clerk picked up the telephone, got the unlisted floor, and muttered sheepishly:

"Fifty-sixth floor, sir."

Richard Gardner, deputy assistant secretary of state for International Organization Affairs, was speaking before a joint meeting of the International Council of Women and the National Council of Women of the U. S. on "population explosion."

Gardner related how at a recent United Nations conference "Outer Space" and "Population Explosion" were listed together on the same program.

"The connection, of course, is obvious," observed Gardner.

"There's really no population problem since you can always export the excess people to other planets."

"This is called," he said, "simply curing overpopulation through artificial dissemination."

Up to that moment corporations that pay 52 per cent of their net profits in income taxes will have been working for the government. From 7:13 p. m. on through Dec. 31 they will be working for themselves.

Grayling Shells Are Fire Hazard

CAMP GRAYLING (AP)—Howlers were to roar into action today — increasing the ever present danger of fire on this sprawling 135,000-acre military reservation.

Exploding artillery shells almost invariably set off widespread grass and brush fires, and part of the rugged grassland and forest here are so dry "that even a carelessly discarded cigar butt could start a bad fire," said Col. Gerald P. Sullivan of St. Clair Shores, camp fire marshal.

Units of the 46th Infantry Division of the Michigan National Guard are taking turns on an around the clock fire alert and probably will continue to do so during the Guard's two-week summer encampment, ending July 20. Artillery units were to start their live-fire exercises with carefully plotted volleys over the heads of infantry units.

The idea is to make combat training more realistic. One infantry officer said:

"Although all safety measures have been taken, there is still a killing sensation when high explosive projectiles whisper through the air overhead. And the effectiveness of artillery fire is proven dramatically by the shell bursts not too many hundreds of yards directly in front of the infantry position."

In other integrated, realistic exercises, infantry units were scheduled to move into combat positions behind medium Patton tanks.

Meanwhile, camp life was to ease up somewhat for about half of the men here. Nearly 2,000 two-man pup tents were to be folded, and 4,000 fox holes filled as a four-day bivouac under combat conditions ended for Detroit and Grand Rapids-area infantry battalions and armored battalions from Dowagiac, Niles, St. Joseph, Three Rivers, South Haven, Bay City, Alpena, Manistee and Cadillac.

Trout Comeback In Lakes Sighted

ANN ARBOR — The lake trout, backbone of a multi-million dollar Great Lakes fishing industry before the war, may be on the verge of a comeback.

The Great Lakes Fishery Commission (GLFC), a U.S.-Canadian agency which coordinates the fight against the sea lamprey, heard optimistic reports at its three-day annual meeting at the University of Michigan.

Continued low levels were reported in Lake Superior barrier catches of the lamprey, a predator that has nearly destroyed lake trout populations in the upper Great Lakes since it moved into the waters just before World War II.

A total of 8,847 lamprey were trapped at barriers in U.S. and Canadian spawning streams through June 21, a figure comparable to the 7,800 lamprey caught by the same date last year. Both figures represent a drastic reduction from the 60,759 figure of 1961, when chemical treatment of the spawning streams had not yet been completed.

The Commission's Lake Trout Rehabilitation Committee reported favorable details on trout survival in Lake Superior where efforts are continuing to re-establish, through stocking, an adequate breeding population in the wake of the chemical treatments.

GLFC Chairman A. L. Pritchard of Ottawa recalled that when the U.S. and Canada signed the treaty agreement establishing the Commission eight years ago, "there was considerable doubt that this parasite could be reduced, let alone maintained at a level which would permit recovery of the fishery. Recent events have, I believe, shown that our governments were not unreasonably optimistic in assigning such a task."

No Major Decline

Reduction of lamprey catches at Lake Superior — spawning streams from over 60,000 in 1961 to less than 10,000 the last two years is due to "the resourcefulness of the men directly engaged in the program," the chairman stated.

While no further major decline was reported this year, he said, "the experience gained in the last three years has naturally resulted in more effective operations. We can, therefore, look forward to a further reduction in the next few years if we do not relax our efforts."

The chairman noted that while determination of the level of lamprey abundance which can be tolerated in the Lake Superior fishery has not yet been made, the response of the trout population

Percentage of hatchery-reared trout in the sample catches continued to increase over the entire lake, especially of undersized fish, Saafield said.

Committee plans for intensive stocking of Lake Superior call for a total planting of nearly 1.9 million yearling fish in 1963, he revealed, an increase of about 50,000 over 1962.

Approximately one-half million yearlings will be planted in Canadian waters by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, and nearly 1.4 million in U. S. waters by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and the state conservation departments of Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota.

In addition to this regularly scheduled planting, the Michigan Department of Conservation and the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife will stock the lake with an estimated 1.3 million fingerlings in the fall—due to lack of hatchery space for them to winter over.

The plantings in 1963 will bring the total stocking of fingerling and yearling lake trout in Lake Superior since 1958 to more than 9 million fish, Saafield said.

More than $750,000,000 in estates is administered by the Veterans Administration for minors and mentally incompetent persons.

Ten Years Ago

Dr. Eugene Mason, a graduate of Escanaba High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mason of Milwaukee, until recently Escanaba residents, has completed his internship at Atlanta, Ga., and has entered a general practice in that city.

The Lakehead Pipeline Construction Co., which at present is employing more than one hundred men from this area, has sent out an urgent call for 50 more men to work in the vicinity of Manistique and points north.

The June just past was warm and humid according to general averages, states the local weather bureau. The average temperature was 61.9 with a high of 83 and a low of 40. The precipitation total was 5.11 inches above normal.

Twenty Years Ago

Robert A. O'Neill, deputy grand exalted ruler and A. J. Goulais, past exalted ruler, left today for Boston, Mass., where they will attend the National Elks convention which opens later this week.

The new lock at the Soo, named after General Douglas MacArthur, was put into service today. This lock is considerably wider than the others and was built with a view of accommodating sea-going vessels, many of which are wider than the long carriers plying the lakes.

Escanaba's utility revenues for the past fiscal year amounted to $432,259.21 or $64,119.92 greater than the revenue of any previous year. This reflects a "boom year" the news report states.

Thirty Years Ago

Henry Breault, former deputy sheriff and deputy traffic officer, has been appointed a patrolman of the Escanaba Police Department.

The Scott Dairy Co. is now occupying its new home on Gladstone's Delta Ave.

Escanaba will be the state convention city for the Ancient Order of Hibernians on Aug. 22, 23 and 24. The sessions will be held at the Knights of Columbus hall and John Fisher of Escanaba, state president, will preside.

New Industry Beginning Soon At Menominee

MENOMINEE—John A. Sargent of Green Bay, who formerly resided here, is returning to Menominee on Aug. 1 to open a new industry for manufacture of saws and sanders.

Initially, the plant will employ between six and seven persons but future plans are for expansion.

Sargent said the company would lease the old car barn of Wisconsin Public Service Corporation and occupy the premises for manufacturing.

Radium Recovered

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Two ceilings and some plumbing were ripped out at St. Luke's Hospital during recovery of a $7,000 radium capsule which accidentally was flushed down a toilet Wednesday.

A Geiger counter was used to pinpoint the radium capsule in the hospital's plumbing system.

Seney Goslings Follow Scientist, Also Tourists

Andrew White, parasitologist for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service has 14 goslings and two crows walking in his footsteps.

They're so close to him, in fact, that they walk all around him and are a work problem. They amaze and delight tourists, as they follow them in the national bird sanctuary.

The goslings and crows were imprinted to White in an annual procedure in which the first thing the goslings see, in the few hours after birth, becomes their "parent." Thus White and tourists at the big wildlife refuge are "parents" for the birds.

The imprinting was done for a study White is making of diseases affecting the birds, particularly leucocytozoon, a blood disease nearly always fatal in geese. Fortunately, only three or four died from it at Seney this year, White said.

Half of the goslings were brought from Lansing, after they were hatched, and the other seven were hatched at Seney. For the first two days of their life, White was with them and played with them.

The birds now can be turned loose in the Refuge environment and can easily be studied as they are tame as a flock of chickens. The crows are too, and like to sit on the office roof at the Refuge cawing for food. They "run" to White when they see him.

White can take them anywhere on the Refuge and they consistently return to him. They will not be released this fall, as it would be "suicide" for them. Instead, they'll probably be shipped to Maryland for further studies by the disease and research section.

Checking is underway on what effect blackflies and mosquitoes have on the disease. Blackflies are known carrier for it. Thus it may be necessary to control water in Refuge pools, as blackflies breed in spawning water.

The crows are being used to find out what blackflies feed on them. Mallard ducks, chipmunks and squirrels also are being used in the study.

The Service believes the Canada Geese at Seney have an immunity from leucocytozoon. The Lansing birds were brought in to see if transporting the birds to the environment affects them, disease-wise. In past years there has been considerable loss due to the disease.

White, who has made "quickie" field trips to Seney before, reports he has enjoyed the longer stay here, and will leave July 3 to return to Maryland. He is a graduate of Ohio's Hiram College.

Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: My husband has a handle bar moustache of which he is very proud. He keeps it neat and enjoys it because people who never noticed him before notice him now.

The trouble is his moustache has given me a rash under my nose and on my chin. The itching drives me crazy and the doctor says I will have the rash as long as my husband has the moustache — unless I stay away from him.

Also, the wax my husband uses on his moustache has a sickeningly sweet odor which nauseates me. I am not the nagging type. I mention things once and that's the limit. He knows the problem and shows no sign of doing anything about it. Yesterday he casually announced that he has no intention of cutting off his moustache when the centennial is over.

I would appreciate any suggestions you might have.—TICKLED BUT NOT LAUGHING

Dear Tickled: Ask your doctor to phone or write a note to your husband explaining the situation. Then tell your husband you are willing to compromise and remain friendly until after the centennial. If he doesn't cut the moustache off after the celebration tell him he can choose between his moustache and your kisses.

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is 16 years old, a fine student and an obedient, respectful boy. After dinner last night his young friend who is exactly the same age came over to the house. I could see quite promptly that the young friend (whom I will call Doug) had been drinking. He was talking louder than usual, slurring his words and behaving in a generally uncoordinated manner.

I came right out and asked

Doug if he had something alcoholic. He proudly replied, "Yes, my father always offers me a highball when he has one. Tonight I had several." My husband and I were dumbfounded. Then he added nonchalantly, "On the way over here I almost fell off my bicycle."

My husband believes we should order our son to break off his friendship with Doug before he picks up some bad habits. Your views are invited. — MAPLE LEAF MOTHER

Dear Mother: Don't order your son to break off his friendship with Doug. He may then feel compelled, out of a sense of loyalty, to defend his buddy and stick with him.

Just keep impressing on your son that you have faith in his integrity and good judgment. Let him know you are confident that he will never disappoint you. Teen-agers have a truly magnificent way of living up to their parents' high opinion of them.

Dear Ann Landers: The other evening my mother-in-law and I attended a civic banquet. At this particular affair there were six women seated at the speaker's table.

After the dessert my mother-in-law, who is up in years, called my attention to the fact that five of the six women at the speaker's table had very poor manners. Why? Because they "painted their faces in public."

For years I have powdered my nose and applied fresh lipstick while at the table. Is this wrong? Sometimes the ladies' room is half a block away, or on a different floor. Will you comment please? No doubt others would like to hear your answer.—W.T.L.

Dear W.T.L.: It is in perfectly good taste for a woman to powder her nose and apply lipstick at the table. Hair-combing is out

Former Diplomat Says Embassies Are Over-Staffed

By BEN F. MEYER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Look into any U.S. embassy in the world, except perhaps in areas of Africa where things are not too comfortable, and what do you see? Attaches, administrators, rehabilitators, military men, information specialists and men tying up loose ends—"far too many people."
This, at least, is the way things seem to Ellis O. Briggs, 63, who has set Washington abuzz with his observations about the diplomatic missions he served for 37 years.
He expressed his views in an interview, and also in testimony to a Senate subcommittee on national security staffing and operations, headed by Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash.
Many embassies, Briggs says, could do with half or less of their staffs. In nearly every case the people are loyal, conscientious and hard working. "It's just that there are far too many of them," Briggs says. "They clutter up the premises."
Men Lack Experience
Briggs added that about 30 percent of the over-staffed embassies are headed by political appointees as "inexperienced in diplomacy as in directing an army corps, a fleet of warships or an air force."
Most Cabinet departments—especially Defense, Commerce, Treasury, Agriculture and Justice—have people in the embassies, and so do other agencies "all the way from one end of the alphabet to the other," he said.
The average U.S. embassy, Briggs says, is grossly over-staffed, particularly by agencies other than the State Department. State Department officials shied away from any direct answer to Briggs' comments. They did say Foreign Service personnel were not sent abroad unless it was felt they were necessary.
Briggs declined to name embassies he considers overstaffed, but implied such a list would be quite long. Africa, he said, has not seen the big influx of personnel because some posts are not in comfortable climates.
Too Much Shifting
"But I am absolutely sure that the seven embassies where I served as ambassador, and some others I know about, have about twice as many people as they need."
Briggs said the United States should quit "playing musical chairs" by shunting around its ambassadors.
"Today there is only one American ambassador in the entire world (Howard Jones, ambassador to Indonesia) who has been at his post for as long as five years. The average, the last time I looked it up, was less than a year and a half."
One way to cut down embassy staffs, he said, is for staffs of foreign aid missions to pull out when projects are finished.
"When you terminate a program you don't automatically get rid of the Indians," he said. "Some try to remain indefinitely, tying up loose ends, as they explain it to you."

Air Engine Expert Dies In Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Sam D. Heron, who developed aircraft engines and fuels for the Allies in both World Wars, died in a nursing home here Wednesday at the age of 72.
Heron helped develop aluminum air-cooled engine cylinders at the Royal Aircraft factory in England during World War I. He came to the United States in 1921.
In 1934 he joined Ethyl Corp. in Detroit as director of aeronautical research. He held the post, except for a leave of absence for government work during World War II, until his retirement in 1946.

Insulting Friends Needle Fat Folks

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—What is the most repulsive sentence in the English language?
There is no doubt about the answer. It is, as every person who ever went on a diet knows, this one: "All you need to do is to push yourself away from the table."
Not long ago 12 people in a single day patted me on the stomach (oh, how I hate people who do that!), and said: "Getting bigger, ain't it?"
Well, you expect insulting remarks like that from needling friends. But as four of these tummy-patters were total strangers, I decided maybe it was time to go on one of my four-times-a-year diet again. So I did. But not with much hope.
It's an odd thing about this world. If you admit you're trying to lose weight, everybody gets into the act.
Your private problem immediately becomes their public business.

"All you need to do is to push yourself away from the table," you are told.
What utter, utter nonsense! At many a dinner, I've pushed myself away from the table 20 or 30 times until my arms were so weak I barely had strength to pull my chair back and finish the meal. All this exercise did was to build up my appetite.
I am a veteran of the starvation diet, the boiled-egg-and-steak diet, the cold-champagne-and-hot-avocado-pear diet, the baked-squid-and-sauerkraut diet. It seems to me I have survived every diet known to man—animal, mineral and vegetable.
My theory is that it isn't just what you eat that makes you fat. My theory is that the air is full of lonely, invisible, floating fat molecules seeking a home. When the molecules encounter a kind-hearted, good-natured, generous person, they happily attach themselves to him like barnacles to a ship, layer by layer, until he becomes fat.

Byam Caravan Group Enjoying Stay In Escanaba

"Sometimes people look forward to retirement and it's a disappointment. This makes their dreams come true," said George Dey.

Dey is leader of the Wally Byam caravan at the U. P. State Fair grounds here this week.

Caravanning has realized Dey's own dreams of retirement pleasures. A Michigander, he promised himself at 25 that he'd retire at 50. Actually he quit his job as chief engineer of Grand Rapids die casters, at Grand Rapids when he was 48, after 29 years with the firm. He'd started his own business, Lowell Engineering Corp., three years before and in 1959 he left that and became a caravanner.

He sold the firm to his son and continues as chairman of the board. It manufactures small parts for GE products, gas mask components for the government, and such items.

Dey has been going to Florida for winter vacations for years and had a 50-foot house trailer there at Pomono Beach. When he got the caravan bug he bought a travel trailer (made by the late Wally Byam who originated the Byam caravan tours) and he's been a trailer gypsy since then. Last winter he went on the Mexican caravan with Byam Caravan Director Charles Kiefer and now he's leader of his first caravan for the Byam Foundation.

Start At Bemidji
It gathered in Bemidji, Minn., June 29 with 2,100. Airstream trailers assembled, and left there July 6 for Escanaba and other points. The caravan led by Dey took two days to get to Escanaba. It will leave here Friday for Sault Ste. Marie, July 12-13 and eastern Canada, with a finish scheduled Aug. 24 at St. John, New Brunswick.

The itinerary schedules Canadian stops at Sudbury, Pembroke, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Edmundston, Campbellton, Port Elgin, Windsor (N.S.), Yarmouth, Lunenburg, Halifax, Antigonish, Baddeck, New Glasgow, Moncton, and St. John.

There are 285 trailers in the group stopping here. Another main group of about 100 trailers went into western Canada and will finish at Haney, British Columbia. The others are going on individual tours or back home. There are about 1,000 persons in the Escanaba group and they are organized, says Dey, like a city within a city.

The travelers will get additions at Sudbury of trailers using the Lake Superior north shore route. The group ranges in age from one year to 85, and there are 35 children in it. Most families are retired couples. They have an average investment in their car and trailer of about $9,000 and they estimate they spend $10 a day while traveling, although some do it on less.

Doctors Assigned

The caravan has 5 doctors among its members and its organization assigns one as head doctor, with a fixed position for his trailer in encampments so it can be reached quickly. One doctor is assigned to the advanced group that moves ahead of the main body and he checks the campsite and makes arrangements for ambulance or hospital services if needed. One doctor moves with the caravan caboose so anyone dropping out because of illness can be attended.

Mechanic members of the caravan are spread out in its tour formation to take care of trouble enroute and the Byam caboose man always moves at the rear to help any cripples.

The caravan has its own postmaster and Dey estimated he'd move several tons of mail during the tour and sell 20,000 stamps.

A bottled gas man attends the caravan at each stop, seeing that it's fueled for refrigeration, water heating, cooking, lighting and space heating.

Still Talking

Beside the leader and caboose man the Byam organization provides a recreational director. On this tour it's Betty Taylor, who's so peppy that caravanners must enjoy themselves or account to her. "These people have been working hard," she said. "They've been saving up their good times and here we see all their dreams coming true. People who never danced before in their life are square dancing. People who never looked at a rock are rock hounds. Children are learning about different parts of the world and making new friends."

The caravans always patronize guided tours where they're available and attend their activities program to the local scene and local attractions. Where they're not charged a camping fee they make a contribution to a local charity. They'll do that in Escanaba. The tour fee per trailer for the 7 weeks is $38.

In Escanaba the activities arranged by Betty Taylor in an advance visit to the Chamber of Commerce included a visit to K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base for retired service personnel in the group, a geological tour, a teen breakfast, a tour of milk ranches, a visit to Fayette Park, a square dance, a tea at the new high school on Wednesday to meet civic leaders, and two band concerts.

Tuesday night's feature was a gourmet's dinner at the House of Ludington. "I thought I'd died and gone to heaven," said Dey. "Filet mignon and strapatie; our people still are talking about it."

M-35 Work Asks Sign Removal To Get Federal Aid

O. F. Eichen, of Newberry, district maintenance engineer of the State Highway Department, is contacting businesses along M 35 from Ford River north on removal of signs from the right-of-way.

The State Highway Department has contracted with Caspian Construction Co., to provide 4,391 miles of bituminous concrete surfacing on M 35 from Ford River north to the Escanaba city limits, where another highway improvement project is underway. Caspian will widen the road from 20 to 24 feet and the right-of-way is being cleared to permit the wider pavement and accompanying drainage structures.

Paving is to be completed by Sept. 30 and the federal government is to bear half the cost of the project. To get the federal aid, said Eichen, it is necessary to comply with Federal Bureau of Public Roads regulations which require that there be no encroachments on the highway right-of-way. Business signs constitute such an encroachment and there are about 12 such signs in the Ford River area, said Eichen.

He said that he expected all of them to be removed voluntarily by the owners, who can re-erect them on their own properties at the edge of the right-of-way.

Eichen cited Bureau of Public Road regulations issued Sept. 6, 1962 which require: "Federal-aid highway construction projects shall not be accepted until all encroachments have been removed from the right-of-way thereof. The term 'encroachment' means any building, fence, sign, billboard, tower, pole, conduit, or any other structure or object of any kind on any portion of the highway right-of-way."

Albert Kaufman, of Lansing, administrative assistant to Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, who accompanied Eichen to Escanaba Wednesday, said that the work on the M 35 project already is underway and that the problem is not its completion, but in the state's obtaining the federal funds to help finance the work. He said that the Federal Bureau of Roads had held up aid in the amount of as much as $250,000 at one time to the State Highway Department because state projects had not conformed to federal aid regulations like the encroachment rule.

Eichen explained that a Bureau of Roads inspector checks the M 35 project periodically and that it must conform (be free of signs on the right-of-way) before federal aid would be forthcoming.

Kaufman said that the regulation would also affect the Delta County Road Commission's federal aid program, but that application would be less severe because most county roads had only 66 foot right-of-way and the M 35 right-of-way is 100 feet.

Negroes To Picket Detroit Police On Fatal Shooting

DETROIT (AP)—Negro groups requesting re-opening of an investigation into a policeman's fatal shooting of a Negro woman say they will picket Detroit police headquarters Saturday.

Patrolman Theodore Spicher shot Cynthia Scott, 24, of Detroit, last Friday. He said she slashed him with a knife as he tried to arrest her on charges of soliciting. Spicher was cleared of criminal negligence in the shooting by Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel H. Olsen after an investigation.

Police said Miss Scott was a known prostitute.

Teenagers Forced To Watch Killings By Cuban Squads

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A newly arrived Cuban refugee youth says teen-agers are forced to witness executions of anti-Castroites in his homeland.

He said Wednesday that young Communists relish the spectacle but that others like himself found it repugnant.

"Before the firing squads go to work, some young people taunt the victims with statements like 'take a last look at the caskets in which they are going to put you,'" said Luis Torres Perez, 17, who escaped his homeland by small boat.

Torres said that in Santa Clara, where he lived, "this macabre spectacle is set up two or three times a week."

cooperation of roadside businesses to help the state get federal aid for highway development had been very good generally.

Highway Bridges Come In Colors; No Pinky Spans

LANSING (AP) — The Highway Department is experimenting with the idea of painting bridges any color of the rainbow.

A research and test project is being carried out on a seven-mile section of I-94 now under construction in St. Clair County.

Six freeway overpasses will be painted in six different colors — maroon, foliage green, ivory, beige, rose-cinnamon and light green.

The department traditionally has used a varnish-based aluminum paint as the finish coat on the structural steel of all highway bridges, overpasses and interchanges.

The paint being tested is an alkyd-resin enamel that comes in any color, in contrast to the silver aluminum paint.

The department thinks the pastel colors will be more durable and reduce maintenance costs. The colors also will break up the monotony of shiny silver bridges, it is figured.

Commissioner John Mackie told his engineers they could pick any color they wanted for the test—except one.

"I don't want any pink bridges," Mackie said.

Combat Engineers Get Tests Today At Camp Grayling

CAMP GRAYLING (AP) — The effectiveness of the Michigan National Guard's beefed up physical training program got its first test today.

Some 500 Upper Peninsula combat engineers took physical training tests as they prepared to wind up their two week training period here Saturday.

Members of the 107th Engineer Battalion from Ishpeming, Calumet, Baraga, Gladstone, Manistique and Marquette, started their training one week early. The other 7,500 men of the 46th Infantry Division, and allied units, came to camp last Saturday.

Beer Possession Brings Jail Term

Two Delta County young men have been jailed for 10 days after their conviction as minors in possession of beer.

They are James W. Peacock, Bark River Rte. 1, who is also on probation from Circuit Court for breaking and entering; and Charles Nordquist, 315 N. 11th St. Peacock is 19 and Nordquist is 20 years old.

They were arrested on Wednesday by Escanaba police and their arraignment was in municipal court.

Town Turns Down New Postoffice

KINGFISHER, Okla. (AP)—The Kingfisher Chamber of Commerce voted Wednesday to tell the U.S. Post Office Department the town doesn't want a new post office.

The chamber favors improvements on the present building costing a fraction of the proposed $110,000 new building. The chamber said it opposes spending tax money for unnecessary items and would like to see the national budget "in the black for a change."

Cities Ask CAB To Keep Flights Twixt Peninsulas

Escanaba, Gladstone and Marquette city governments have joined to protest to the Civil Aeronautics Board the proposal of North Central Airlines that it be permitted to end its daily flights from Detroit through Port Huron, Saginaw, Traverse City, and Escanaba to Marquette and return.

The service, ordered by the CAB after the Great Lakes Local Service Case inquiry into the area's airline service needs, is midway in a 5 year trial period. North Central says its subsidy is too heavy; that it has not developed enough pay traffic.

Escanaba City Council already has protested to CAB the cessation of the service. Marquette's city commission has also protested and Gladstone will join in the protest.

At a conference of representatives of the communities at Escanaba city hall called by City Manager George Harvey late Wednesday a conference of interested U. P. communities and agencies was planned for later in July. Harvey, Mayor Frank Stupak and City Commissioner George Young of Gladstone and Marquette City Attorney Waldo A. McCrea agreed that the Upper Peninsula's hopes of economic growth demand adequate transportation and that the aerial bridge air service between the two Peninsulas of Michigan is a vital service.

The service has not prospered, they suggested, because inter-peninsula traffic moves via Green Bay on North Central to get to Lansing and Detroit more directly. They suggested that service from Marquette and Escanaba to Traverse City, Lansing and Detroit would prosper and should provide economies in time and money over the circuitous Green Bay route.

Operation Action And UPCAP Will Support Liaison

One of Michigan's top government officials has requested the appointment of a council to coordinate economic development in the Upper Peninsula.

Bernard M. Conboy, head of Michigan's Department of Economic Expansion, met in Marquette July 8 with staff members of the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems and Operation Action — U. P. to iron out operating procedure for development efforts of the two groups. Each organization would appoint two representatives.

UPCAP delegates asked Conboy to work out a formula for coordinating area development projects. Gov. George Romney had assigned the project as a top-priority effort after meeting with leaders of UPCAP and Operation Action—U. P. in Marquette June 22.

Operation Action membership includes representatives from major industries and educational institutions throughout the state. UPCAP is supported by the U. P. county boards of supervisors.

Conboy said the new coordinating council would maintain direct communications between the two groups, encourage specialization of efforts and work for a team approach.

The council will also seek maximum participation of groups such as the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, agencies and educational institutions.

A joint statement of purpose will be drafted as soon as the council is named. Conboy stressed that attention will be focused on existing industries and businesses.

were glad they could accept Kennedy's proposal. They said they were hopeful a complete restudy of the facts in the dispute would bring out more sentiment in their favor.

Luna commented that the new committee will only review the situation. He said the unions would be agreeable to renew negotiations with the carriers at any time.

On Capitol Hill, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said GOP members of Congress would fight vigorously any move for federal seizure of railroads or compulsory arbitration.

Other congressional leaders also made it clear they hope they will not have to deal with the problem of legislating a solution to the railroad controversy.

The work rule changes the carriers want to institute would eliminate some 65,000 jobs, about 40,000 of them firemen's. The unions contend the jobs are necessary to ensure safe operations.

Downstate Area Fire Hazard High

LANSING (AP) — An extreme fire hazard situation exists in the western half of the state and over the northern Lower Peninsula generally, reports the Conservation Department.

"We haven't had anything run out of control yet, but conditions are ripe for a big fire," said M. M. Bergman, chief of fire control for the department.

The Muskegon area was reported a tinderbox and potentially dangerous.

The Conservation Department rates the fire hazard potential with an index running from zero to 100. Any figure above 10 means a fire danger.

The Muskegon area was given a 57 rating Monday and a 51 rating Tuesday. The northern half of the Lower Peninsula generally has been given a rating averaging about 35.

Numerous small fires have been reported over the weekend and so far this week in the Muskegon area and the northern half of the Lower Peninsula. None went out of control.

The hazardous situation will last until a general and soaking rain hits the area, the department said.

DETROIT (AP)—Allied Super Markets Inc., operators of Wrigley, Big Valu and Packer stores in Michigan and Ohio, has appointed a Negro as manager of employee and community relations. He is Edward M. Swan, former executive secretary of the Detroit branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who joined Allied as a management trainee in 1957.

DETROIT (AP)—Declaring they wanted "immediate action and not promises," some 300 Negro ministers voted Wednesday to continue a three-week-old "selective patronage" boycott of A&P food stores. Another Negro organization, the Group on Advanced Leadership (GOAL), agreed Monday to withdraw its pickets at A&P stores after the chain said it would appoint five Negro store managers in eastern Michigan within a year. There was no comment from A&P on the Negro ministers' action.

DETROIT (AP)—The designer of a special stamp commemorating the 100th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation has been invited to attend a ceremony promoting the sale of the stamp Aug. 19. George Olden, a vice president of the New York advertising firm of McCann-Erickson, was extended an invitation by the Citizens of Interest Committee of Detroit, sponsor of the affair. Postmaster Edward L. Baker will be principal speaker at a luncheon after the ceremony.

LANSING (AP)—Motor Wheel Corporation announced Wednesday plans for construction of a $1 million plant in Mendota, Ill., for manufacture of agricultural and industrial wheels. President Raymond J. Wilcox said the company plans to employ a maximum of about 100 people in its Mendota division, which is scheduled for completion Oct. 15.

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Wayne County Port Commission voted Wednesday to ask for a $30,000 increase in its 1964 budget allowance. The commission, which has a 1963 budget of $83,000, seeks the additional money to expand promotional activities of the commission as recommended in a recent $65,000 port survey. The budget request will be forwarded this week to the Wayne County Board of Auditors.

DETROIT (AP)—A draft of an open occupancy ordinance, submitted to Common Council Wednesday by Corporation Counsel Robert Reese, has been sent to the Community Relations Commission for its review and recommendation. The ordinance would prohibit racial discrimination in sales, rentals and financing of residential property by owners, brokers, salesmen and mortgage agencies.

LANSING (AP)—Bids on 32 highway construction projects totaling $7.9 million will be opened at Lansing July 17 by the State Highway Department. Major projects include more than half a mile of paving on the Walter Chrysler expressway in Detroit, three miles of modernization of Telegraph Rd. in Wayne County, a weigh station near New Buffalo, in Berrien County, a half mile of improvements on I 94 in Port Huron and seven overpasses on the U. LANSING (AP)—The State Highway Department has announced it will hold a public hearing at Houghton July 25 on the proposed relocation of a short section of U. S. 41 in Houghton. Baffling Poodle Walks On 2 Legs

ODENSE, Denmark (AP)—Pucki, a year-old poodle, has baffled Danish medical men. He walks only on his hind legs. "The dog started walking upright when he was three months old," his owner, Carl W. Soelling, told a reporter. "We never trained him to do it." "When Pucki goes walking it's nearly always on his hind legs. Sometimes he stands upright for more than five minutes, staring at something interesting." One Danish surgeon has asked permission to take x-rays of Pucki's pelvic region in an attempt to find out why he apes the human stance. Soelling gave his okay, saying, "I am anxiously waiting for the result of this scientific examination."

Limiting the national debt seems to be as practical as limiting the height of a growing boy. As Newschart shows, the congressionally imposed debt "limit" has obligingly been raised every time the national debt approached it. Most recently, Congress was asked to raise the limit to $309 billion. It may be lifted to $320 billion by the end of the year. One advantage of a debt limit: It forces the administration to justify its spending before Congress and attracts national attention.

Forestry Leader Will Be Honored

AMASA—A large industrial tree farm near Amasa will be dedicated on Aug. 1 in honor of Bruce G. Buell, retired chief forester of Marathon Division of American Can Co.

Howard R. Palmquist, Marathon's woodlands manager, of Neenah, Wis., said "The 43,000-acre tree farm is being designated the 'Bruce G. Buell Tract' in recognition of his 33 years of dedicated service to the company and his unselfish and untiring contributions to the forestry profession."

The dedication program, to which the public is invited, will start at 10 a.m. with a motorcade through the Marathon forest. A noon luncheon will be served at the Amasa High School, followed by ceremonies at 1:30 p.m.

Arthur F. Koller, chairman of Michigan Forest Industries and woodlands manager for the Packaging Corp. of America, Filer City, Mich., will be the master of ceremonies. Speakers will include James C. McClellan, chief forester, American Forest Products Industries, Inc., Washington, D.C., and Russell C. Flom, vice president, Marathon Division of American Can Co., Neenah, Wis.

Robert E. Schmeling, chairman of the Region I Tree Farm Committee and woodlands manager for Mead Corp., Escanaba, will award tree farm signs and certificates to newly certified U.P. tree farmers.

Buell was born on Feb. 12, 1898, at Birmingham, Ala. He attended grade and high school at Ann Arbor, Mich., and received both his bachelor and master of science degrees in forestry from the University of Michigan in 1919 and 1924 respectively.

In 1930 he joined the Patten Timber Co. at Amasa as a forester. In 1940 he became chief forester of the Northern Paper Mills, and in 1953, chief forester of Marathon's woodlands operations. He continued in that position after his company's merger with the American Can Co. and until his retirement on March 1.

He has been affiliated with a large number of professional and civic organizations and has received innumerable awards for his forestry achievements. He was an early advocate of intensive forest management in the Lake States, and in recent years he has been a strong supporter of multiple use forest management and forest conservation education.

Egyptian Planes Accused Of Using Poison Gas Bombs

GENEVA (AP)—U.N. observers will investigate whether bombs dropped by Egyptian planes on Royalist Yemeni tribesmen contained poison gas, a weapon unused since World War I and outlawed by international convention. The United States and Britain are conducting independent inquiries.

U.S. Secretary-General U Thant Tuesday ordered Swedish Gen. Carl Von Horn, head of the U.N. mission in Yemen, to check recent allegations that poison gas has been used in Yemen's civil war.

Officials in the United Arab Republic denied the accusations.

The Hawaiian goose, the state bird of Hawaii, is a rare bird, indeed. Only about 60 are known to live in the Hawaiian Islands.

Eclipse Watching Endangers Sight

ANN ARBOR — A partial eclipse of the sun will be seen Saturday, July 20, reminds University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

She also reminds that looking at a partial eclipse without adequate protection can be dangerous.

How much of the sun will be blacked out by the moon, passing directly between the earth and sun, will depend on the location of the observer.

"At the peak of the eclipse, approximately 83 per cent of the sun will be blacked out for Detroit viewers with slight deviations from this amount for other parts of the state, a little more being hidden for the more northern regions."

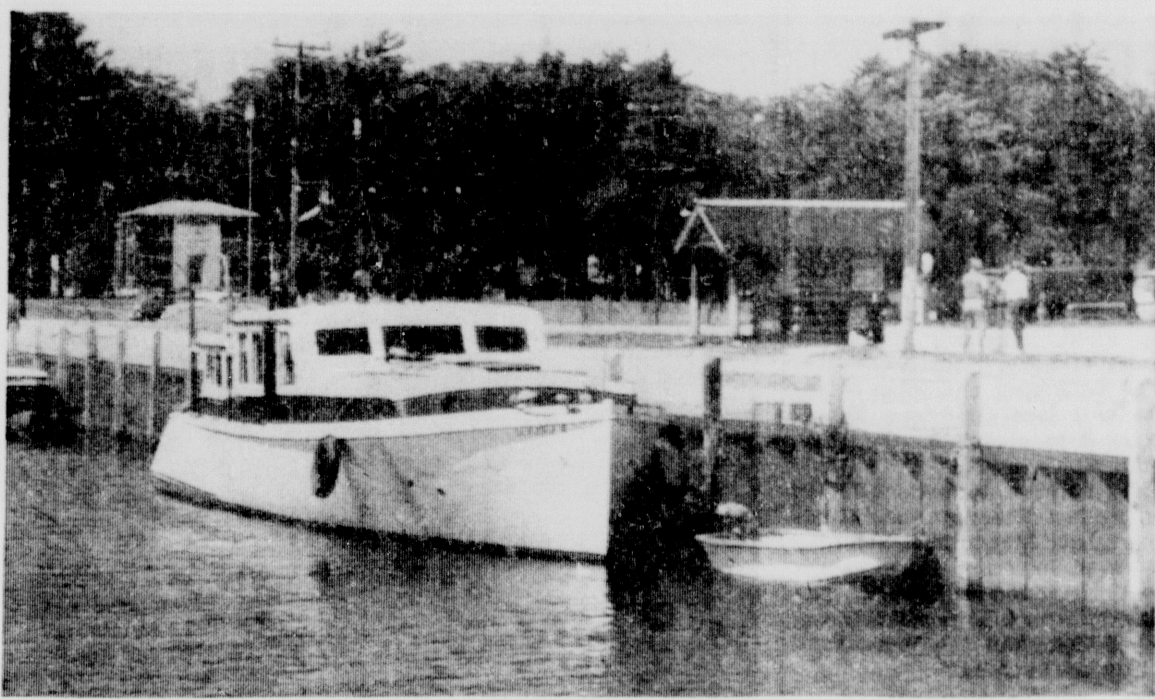

In Detroit, the eclipse will begin at 3:30 p. m., reach the peak at 4:42 p. m., and end at 5:46 p. m.

"In order to see the sun totally eclipsed, one would have to travel to the narrow path, which curves from Japan across Alaska, Canada, and Maine," Professor Losh says.

The U-M astronomer warns that "looking at partial eclipse can be extremely hazardous. The total light decreases, but any particular area on the exposed part of the solar disk is just as bright as it is when the moon is far from the sun."

"Therefore, heavily smoked glass, dense film or negatives, or appropriate filters must be used for naked-eye observations. To look at the sun through any optical instrument — even the finder on your camera — can burn your eye and cause blindness."

An eclipse of the sun occurs when the moon is at new phase and passes between the earth and the sun. Although the moon at new phase usually passes above or below the sun, at least two solar eclipses occur every year, visible from some part of the earth, and there may be as many as five, Prof. Losh says.

Leased Wire Will Transmit Farm Commodity News

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced today it is ready to transmit by leased wire its farm commodity market news service into offices of newspaper, radio and television stations, commercial firms, cooperatives and other interested persons and organizations. Subscribers will pay all costs.

Presently, most newspapers and broadcasting stations obtain the department's market reports from The Associated Press and United Press International, which pick them up from the department's own market wires.

Persons and organizations wishing to subscribe are being asked to make all business arrangements with American Telephone and Telegraph Co., which owns the leased wire lines, the teletype-writers and other equipment making up the communications circuit.

Briefly Told

Claude Murdock, 1610 16th Ave. S., Escanaba was ticketed by State Police for no operator's license.

Martin was a passenger in a car driven by a 15-year-old girl who was backing up to turn around and hit a garage owned by George Carlson of Bay View Location. Pair Of Homers

Mellows Red Sox Homerun Slugger

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) —Nothing mellows a slugger scorned like hitting two home runs and batting in five runs.

Boston better Dick Stuart, who considered himself wronged a week ago when Ralph Houk didn't name him to the American League All-Star team, mellowed after such a spurge in Boston's 7-4 victory over Minnesota Wednesday night.

Stuart had no more venom for the New York Yankee manager

Crimson Satan

Favored Horse

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Crimson Satan, third leading active money winner in thoroughbred racing, and possibly a dozen other contenders are due to tangle in the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup Handicap Saturday.

Entries were due today, 24 ahead of the usual closing.

Other probable challenges include Dr. Kacy, Mr. Consistency, Aldershot, Olympiad King, Drill Site, Pirate Cove, Native Diver, Cadiz, Hardwars, Cadiz and Full Regalia.

Crimson Satan, from the Detroit stable of Peter W. Salmen, was flown here 10 days ago for this one big money shot. The five-year-old Satan would boost his lifetime earnings to $785,922 if he won and move into second place in the dollar chase of horses now in action.

First place in the Hollywood Gold Cup is worth $102,100.

Only Kelso, at $1,307,037, and the filly, Cicada, $758,324, lead Crimson Satan at the moment.

The Satan, to be ridden by Herb Hinojosa, will pack high weight of 125 pounds. He was a big winner behind Crozier at the Santa Anita meeting and is no stranger to Southern California fans.

Thomson Leads

British Open

ST ANNE'S, England (AP)—Peter Thomson, the slender Australian who has won the British Open Golf Championship four times, snatched the second round lead in the 1963 British Open from America's Jack Nicklaus today as he scorched the Royal Lytham and St. Anne's course with a 69, his second sub-par round.

That gave Thomson a 36-hole score of 67-69—136, two strokes ahead of Nicklaus, who had finished a few minutes earlier with 71-67—138.

Nicklaus' second round of 67, three under par for the Lytham and St. Anne's course, included four birdies and one bogey. Thomson had a round of 35-34—69, losing his lead over Nicklaus on the front nine but regaining it on the back nine.

Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., winner of the Open for the past two years but in danger of elimination today after his first round 76, was one of the day's later starters. So was Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif., who 67 tied him with Thomson for the first round lead.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) —Pontiac's Wallace J. Smith ousted the medalist in the first round of the National Public Links Golf Tournament Wednesday, but then was eliminated in the second round.

Michigan's three other qualifiers also failed to survive the first day of match play.

Smith, 46, beat qualifying medalist John Joseph of Hayward, Calif., 4 and 3 in the morning. He lost in the afternoon, 3 and 2, to Ed Castagnetto Jr. of San Francisco.

John Kurach of Detroit defeated Arnold Salinas of Dallas 1-up in the first round, but met tournament favorite Dick Sikes of Wichita, Kan., in the second and lost 5 and 4.

Edward Briegel of Ann Arbor and Samuel Lima of Hazel Park both were ousted in the first round. Briegel lost 4 and 3 to Chet Latawiec of Minneapolis and Lima lost 3 and 2 to George E. Bass of Sacramento.

Legion Baseball

Tourney Slated

Here July 17-21

Escanaba will be host to the 11th district American Legion baseball tournament July 17-21, it was announced today by Bob Olsen, district director.

The five team tournament will be run off under double elimination Legion regulations with the winner advancing to the Upper Peninsula finals at Menominee July 27. The 11th district and 12th district survivors will clash for the U. P. crown and the right to advance to the state tournament.

Competing in the tourney here will be Manistique, Trenary, Escanaba, Gladstone and Menominee. All are members of the Wau-bung League except Trenary.

In the tournament drawings conducted by Olsen Wednesday, Menominee drew the first round bye. Manistique will get the bye in the second round and the teams remaining in contention will draw for the bye in the third round.

The tournament will open with one game July 17 at 6 p. m. at Al Ness Field, matching Manistique against Trenary.

The defending champion, Esby Cubs will face Gladstone Thursday at 6 to complete the first round.

Esby returns to action Friday at 6 against Trenary and Gladstone meets Menominee Saturday at 10 a. m. in second round games. The third round will begin Saturday afternoon and officials expect to complete the tournament by Sunday evening.

Tigers Return

Against Chisox

CHICAGO (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, second from the bottom, face the Chicago White Sox, second from the top, tonight—seeking their second victory of the season over the White Sox.

The Tigers, except for All-Stars Jim Bunning and Al Kaline, had three days to rest on the heels of a six-out-of-seven victory record. Their last outing was a doubleheader split with Kansas City last Sunday.

In winning the first game of that twin bill—their sixth straight victory—the Tigers briefly moved even with the eighth-place A's.

But after losing the nightcap, they need to make up one game for eighth place, 9½ games for the first division of the American League. 15½ games for first place and they need to win 12 straight games just to reach the .500 percentage mark for victories.

Manager Charlie Dressen spent part of the All-Star Game break at Syracuse, looking for pitching help at the Tigers' farm club there.

He plans to use Hank Aguirre (7-7) or Don Mossi (4-5) tonight against Chicago's John Buzhardt (9-4).

The Tigers will play three games at Chicago, three at Washington and then return to Detroit to meet Baltimore next Tuesday night.

Wave Of Upsets

Strikes Publinx; Sikes Eyes Third

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A catchall assortment of upsets fresh from wholesale disposal of National Public Links medal leaders set their sights today on Dick Sikes, the young golfer who's trying to win this tournament for the third straight year.

A wave of upsets brushed the three top medalists and one of the four-placers out of match play competition in Wednesday's first and second rounds.

But Sikes, who had qualified comfortably at one-under-par 72-73—145, went four-under Wednesday for the mere 27 holes he needed to dispose of Dave Hell man, Waukegan, Ill., 6 and 5 and Detroit's John Kurach 5 and 4. He lost only one hole.

"I stroked my putts a little better," said Sikes, 22, a Springdale, Ark., gofer who plays out of Wichita, Kan., this summer. "Maybe it's me, but I think the greens are getting a little better."

He faced rugged John Schlee of Memphis, Tenn., in today's third round. Schlee was seven under par for the 30 holes he needed to drop two foes, Sikes beat Schlee 2 and 1 in the Publinx semifinals two years ago and Schlee predicted that today's winner would have to go five under par.

"You are damned right I've been waiting to play him," Schlee said with a laugh.

The quarter-finals were set for this afternoon. Semifinals and finals over a 36-hole route at the 6,702 par 36-36-72 Haggin Oaks course are Friday and Saturday.

Air Force Sgt. Clyde Sniffin, a Honolulu native playing out of Everett, Wash., needed half again as many holes as Sikes to advance. He finally ousted 1962 runner-up Hugh Soe Ahn of Honolulu on the 25th hole of a match that broke the tournament record for extra holes. A wedge shot within two feet of the pin set up his winning birdie.

Then Sniffin, 27, came back to Leroy Beasley of Mesquite, Tex., 3 and 2 in the afternoon. Beasley was the second low medal shooter.

Dodgers Stretch National League Lead To Four Games

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

About those Los Angeles Dodger pitchers.

Man, they give up runs the way Jack Benny parts with a buck.

Johnny Podres pulled the Serooge act Wednesday night, doling out three miserly singles and striking out 11 as the Dodgers cashed in another victory by handing New York's poverty-stricken Mets their 11th successive loss, 1-0.

The Dodgers now have won eight of their last nine in climbing from fourth place to a rich four-game lead in the National League. In five of those eight victories, Los Angeles pitchers have posted shutouts and in two others they've held the opposition to a single run.

Podres, the 30-year-old left-hander, has banked three victories in the Dodgers' latest surge, allowing a grand total of one run and 10 hits. His squeaker over the Mets, decided on John Roseboro's eighth inning homer, was his second straight by a 1-0 score and his fourth shutout.

While the Dodgers were edging the Mets, the Philadelphia Phillies dropped second-place San Francisco five games behind, capitalizing on Giant misplays in a 10-2 romp.

Also in the NL—Joey Jay became a winner for the first time in over a month, with strong relief in the final inning, as the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Chicago Cubs 3-1, and Houston's Ken Johnson and Hal Woodeshick combined for a five-hit 2-0 shutout of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Dick Stuart's slugging powered the Boston Red Sox over Minnesota 7-4 in 10 innings in the only American League game played. The hard-hitting first baseman exploded out of a home run slump

All Star Grid

Squad Gathers

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—A squad of 50 of last season's finest college football players assemble at Northwestern University today to start three weeks of training for the All-Star game.

The collegians, coached for the sixth straight year by Otto Graham, will try to beat the National Football League champions — Green Bay Packers — for the first time since 1958 on Aug. 2 in Soldier Field.

In 1958, debut of Graham as head coach, the college graduates overwhelmed the Detroit Lions 35-19. They haven't won since. Last year, however, they held the Packers to a 21-20 edge through three quarters before being dismantled 42-20.

The pros hold a 19-8 margin in the series, with two ties.

Assisting Graham, director of athletics at the Coast Guard Academy, are Dick Stanfel, Johnny Sauer, Mike Scarry, Dante Lavelli and Tom O'Connell.

Equipment will be issued and physical examinations given today with heavy drills starting Friday. Thirty-seven colleges are represented on the squad, Michigan State and Mississippi, each with four, top the delegations.

Pete Ross Fires

One-Hit Victory

The 1963 Jaycee Little League second place position will be at stake Friday night when Kiwanis takes on the Bankers.

Kiwanis moved into a tie with the Bankers Wednesday by beating the Credit Union 6 to 3 behind the one hit pitching of Pete Ross.

Dale Boudreau picked up the only hit off Ross, but frequent walks kept the Credit Union in scoring position, although Ross whiffed 15 in winning his fourth game of the year. Al Gossan and Danny Mylander gave up six hits for the Credit Union.

PITCHING — Johnny Podres, Dodgers, allowed only three singles and truck out 11 in his second straight 1-0 victory, this one over the New York Mets.

BATTING — Dick Stuart, Red Sox, homered with two on in the 10th inning, powering Boston over Minnesota 7-4; also hit two-run homer and single.

Spectacular Double Play

Saves Victory For Podres

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Podres hadn't been this excited since he shut out the New York Yankees in the 1955 World Series and brought Brooklyn its first world championship.

On the surface, there appeared little cause for the elation shown by the veteran Los Angeles Dodger southpaw.

Sure, he had won a game. But it was against the Mets, the same drab, inept New York outfit that had blown 10 straight before Wednesday night's meeting with the league-leading Dodgers.

But the 30-year-old Podres had good reason to be overjoyed—and thankful.

He had just blown a 1-0 lead in the ninth inning—or so it seemed—and he started walking dejectedly toward the clubhouse, a 2-1 loser. But before he had time to curse his fate, an almost certain home run was turned into a spectacular game-ending double play and Podres jogged happily the rest of the way, a 1-0 winner.

It was the play of the year as far as Podres was concerned. The leading characters in it, besides joyful Johnny, were Frank Thomas and Tommy Davis.

Johnny Roseboro's eighth inning homer, a low line drive that barely cleared the lower right field fence, had given the Dodgers their slim edge against Met right-hander Carl Willey.

The Mets were batting in the ninth with one out and pinch runner Al Jackson on first base. Up to that point, Podres had a three-hit shutout and 22 consecutive scoreless innings going for him.

Then wham. Thomas connected with a fast ball and sent it screaming high and far toward the left field stands. It seemed destined to reach the seats in the upper tier. "I was sure it was gone," Dodger Manager Walt Alston said later.

"So was I," admitted Podres. "I was sure it was a homer. I thought it would hit the facade between the upper and lower stands."

It did not. Almost but not quite. The ball died as it reached the stands and Davis, racing back and to his right the instant the ball was hit, braced himself against the left field stands, leaped up and caught the ball high over his head.

The relay was grabbed by Podres, near second base. Jackson, as did every one of the 17,106 paying customers, thought it would clear the fence and was rounding third. Podres ran to first base, then tossed to Ron Fairly for the double play.

"The only reason I caught the ball was because I was on second, on the way to the clubhouse," said Podres.

8:15 - Flat Rock vs. Skinny's

Dwayne Hamelin came up with the first no-hit pitching performance in the National League this season when he fired Hall Insurance to an 11-0 triumph over Bero Motors Wednesday at Webster Diamond.

Hamelin fanned four batters and granted four walks. The only threat to his no-hit gem was Almonroeder's drive to right field that Will Summers caught at his shoe tops.

Jim Artley and Ralph Drage had two singles each to account for most of the Hall runs. Bitter and Almonroeder shared the Bero mound and gave up six hits, six walks.

In the American League, Mead No. 1 cemented its front running position with a 5-2 verdict over second place Merchants.

Todd Butler flipped a four-hitter and fanned 14 while cracking three hits to help his own cause. One was a two-run double in the first inning in which Mead scored three runs. Rodger Miron singled in the other tally in that frame.

The Merchants scored both their runs in the fourth inning with Bob Corriveau and Bud Kennecally collecting the key hits. They each had two hits in the game, the only Merchant players able to solve Butler's slants.

Corriveau went the route for the Merchants, allowing six hits and fanning six.

Maris Sidelined

For Operation;

Mantle Due Back

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, the other half of New York's famed M-and-M slugging combination, has joined Mickey Mantle on the Yankee list of the missing.

Maris, who assumed the Yankee team leadership when Mantle was sidelined with a broken foot June 5, will undergo surgery at New York's Lenox Hill Hospital Friday for a rectal fissure.

"From what I hear from New York," Yankee Manager Ralph Houk said in Los Angeles, "I expect him to be out a week to 10 days."

Mantle, who won the American League's Most Valuable Player award for the third time last season, rejoined the Yankees in Los Angeles today, but is not expected to be ready to play for another week or two.

"I'll play him as soon as he's ready," Houk said. "I don't know when that will be."

Maris, the Yanks right fielder, was scheduled for surgery after an examination by the Yankee team physician Dr. Sidney Gaynor and a specialist, Dr. John Donaldson, who will perform the operation.

The slugging, green-eyed outfielder, missed the Yankees' doubleheader in Cleveland Sunday with what was thought at the time to be a recurrence of a back ailment that had sidelined him earlier this season.

He flew to his home in Independence, Mo., for the All-Star game break, but returned to New York Wednesday after a telephone consultation with Dr. Gaynor.

Maris, a two-time MVP who hit a record 61 homers in 1961, has 19 home runs, 42 runs batted in and a .294 batting average—his highest in the majors—so far this season.

'Pays To Know' Cruise Success

By JIM GOOCH

The Houghton-Hancock Chamber of Commerce and the National Park Service hosted Upper Peninsula Chamber representatives, reporters and general tourist greeters on a trip to Isle Royale recently. The trip was billed as an attractions tour and was associated with the Pays to Know hospitality program being sponsored by the Upper Michigan Tourist Association and the Michigan State University Extension Service.

For a surprising number of the 47 on the tour, it was the first trip to the 210-square-mile wilderness island, in Lake Superior, 70 miles northwest of Houghton. It is Michigan's only national park.

Aside from the scenic wonderment, the trip served to emphasize several healthy trends that make crystal ball gazers see a brighter future for the U.P. travel industry.

First, there's a strong movement for greater cooperation between communities and for organized efforts involving sales and service people within individual communities. The Isle Royale tour is a dramatic example. Similar attractions tours and sales training clinics were bringing industry people together all across the Peninsula. Last year, over 3,000 employees and employers participated in a similar program.

There is a healthy attitude towards hosting and servicing the traveling public. Response to the Pays to Know program is indicative. The National Park Service people gave the "red carpet" treatment from the time the Ranger III docked until visitors boarded for the return trip to Houghton, and the U.P. Chamber people could be seen taking notes as they were guided to the plush facilities at Rock Harbor, at the north end of the 45-mile-long island.

Through an aggressive industry-educator team effort, Michigan's educational resources are being effectively applied to aid the growth of tourism. MSU through its nearly 20-year-old tourist and resort division and U.P. Extension staff, aids individual operators and work with the Upper Michigan Tourist Association on projects such as the Pays to Know program. Michigan Tech and Northern Michigan University have several consultants that provide valuable assistance to the industry.

Guests on the Ranger III observed a University of Michigan graduate student who was busily interviewing passengers to find what motivated them to come to the U.P. and take the Isle Royale trip. Such studies aid the Tourist Association and chamber groups in planning promotional and service programs.

A glance at the Ranger III passenger list would emphasize the wide range of professionals who now recognize their responsibilities to the tourist industry. In addition to chamber representatives from 11 communities and reporters, there were several filling station operators, airline representatives, regional economic developers, educators, operators of highway information stations and a police woman.
